

Fifth Commandment

Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Father and Mother are One.
You were always with Them, and They with you.

Never were you not,
nor ever will you not be, so long as your Father and Mother are alive in the heavens.

Flowing humbly like water into all the cracks of Creation, your Heavenly Mother speaks to you gently through your inner ear.

Your Heavenly Father penetrates your soul with His primal power
to further your growth, spark from His Flame that you are.

Honoring your Father and Mother is to speak the Holy Language which no book nor Bible can fully reveal.

The Heavenly Couple,
the Yin and Yang,
make up the Holy One.
Your earthly parents are a living reflection of this Heavenly Union which nourishes you, allowing your awareness to mellow and deepen.
